"They this once more, Moike. Here's a church fronted us. No in the hair, old man, and confound it take a fresh start. I'll wait outside."

He waited until he was tired, then, peering into the darkened building, said in a hoarse whisper:

"Have you confessed?"

"No have that?"

"Where's the priest?"

"He's gone out to call a cop." [From "Success Magazine"]

About the State

During the thunder storm last week Wednesday, the trunk line telephone between Middlebury and Rutland was struck and burned out in the Middlebury telephone office. The operators were stunned by the shock and the office filled with smoke.

Frank Arachete, the burglar who pleaded guilty to breaking and entering William & Abbott's store, in Bellows Falls, was sentenced on Tuesday at county court to not less than two years and not more than two and a half years at the state's prison at Windsor.

It is said that Hyde Park will appeal from the public service commission's decision, compelling the rebuilding of the new road to that village from the west, on the ground that the $4,000 fixed by those officials is not enough to do the work. As the town is suffering greatly from the recent big fire losses, it does not feel able to bear the expense.

Ralph Coddling, the 4-year-old son of B. A. Coddling of Bellows Falls, was badly hurt Wednesday afternoon suffering a fracture of both bones of the left forearm. The boy was riding with his father on a bicycle and on crossing the railroad track in North Walpole, the horse broke and the boy was thrown heavily to the ground. Mr. Coddling's arm was also hurt.

Gray squirrels damaged the telephone service in Burlington last week, by gnawing through the heavy protective lead sheath around the cable and letting the rain beat into the cable. It was a surprise to all that squirrels should enjoy that diet, but it is thought that the sugar of lead in the pipe appeals to them. The pipe was gnawed through an eighth of an inch for about a foot.

A large number of the Italians who are employed by the Rutland Railway, Light & Power company in raising the dam at Chittenden, struck Monday for an increase in wages. Some of them went back to work the next day and on Wednesday there was another strike. It is said that the men have been receiving $1.50 for a nine hour day and they wanted $1.75 for 10 hours. A settlement was finally effected.

A serious accident occurred Thursday in West Milton, when a horse, driven by Miss Eunice Calbreth, became frightened at the crossing, throwing Miss Calbreth and her aunt, who was with her out of the wagon, with the wagon on top of them. The horse was caught unbridled a short distance away and Miss Calbreth was not hurt, but the other lady sustained a broken knee cap and dislocated hip and many minor injuries.

It is expected that Walton's Vermont Register, which is being published by The Tuttle company of Rutland, will be out within a few days. The delay in publishing the book this year has been due to the great increase in size of the 1910 publication, which contains 800 pages, where the previous issue contained 204 pages. The information which has been the principal cause of the increase in space is that given under the head of business directory by towns.

Following the settlement of the paper makers' strike in New York City about 30 of the 100 or more strikers in Bellows Falls have been put at work by the International Paper Co. there and the company will re-employ the men as fast as positions are available. Those who took the strikers' places in March will retain their positions as long as they want to stay, but there is little doubt that within a month or so most of the old hands will have their former jobs.

H. B. Bartlett of Burlington, who was indicted as the February term of the United States court for fraudulent use of the mails in carrying on a commission business, and who pleaded guilty and was sentenced to three months in Chittenden county jail, was released Thursday, only to be rearrested immediately on an indictment issued from the United States district court of New York on the same charge. It seems that he had been carrying on a similar business in New York state before operating in Vermont.

John Reilly, head 38 years, living in North Walpole, N. H., was fatally injured last week near South Vernon, while walking on the railroad track. Several men were together and, seeing the headlight of a locomotive from Bellows Falls approaching, Mr. Reilly warned the others to get out of the way. At the same time, he was struck by the locomotive and killed.

Is the Tuberculosis Crusade Losing Ground?

Sanitaria Seemingly Fail to Check the Terrible White Plague. Enormous Sums Spent.

The recent report of the Pennsylvania Board of Health reveals the startling condition that despite all the efforts being made by various means of fresh air and sun, and quick-moving treatment, the number of new cases has not been noticeably decreased.

This report applies to Sanitaria treatment, it does not take into account the fact that people who had tuberculosis and are today in perfect health. At the same time, it is a warning to the public, that the Sanitaria treatment is not a cure, but a temporary relief. It is a warning to the public, that the Sanitaria treatment is not a cure, but a temporary relief. It is a warning to the public, that the Sanitaria treatment is not a cure, but a temporary relief.

Announcement has been made by the trustees of the fund left by the late Col. William Austin to erect a $50,000 institution for the treatment of the mentally and otherwise defective persons is to be erected in Brattleboro. The Thayer farm on Maple street has been purchased as a site for the institution. This fund of $50,000 was left by Colonel Austin in 1904 and has grown to $66,000 by accruing interest. Considerable litigation has been involved in since the bequest was made.
